[For the Louisville Democrat.] THE GUARDIAN SPIRIT,

BY WILLIAM W. HARNEY. When the beauteous lose of morning Wears her diadem of dew, And the foot print of the zephyr Rests upon the waters blue; When the moon is sortly waning, 'Neath the morrow's golden light, And the cool breath of the morning

Faus the jewel'd brow of night;

When the maiden morning blushes, As it wakens from repose, Aud the jealous zephyr brushes Off the dew-kiss from the rose-Then I watch the star beams fading. As the sunlight gilds the sky,

Until, with the morn, they whisper, "His! the loved one still is nigh." When the god of day is slaning, As it rides a car of light. And the splendor of the mid day

Wears a crown of purest white; When a train of breathing flowers With their incense load the air, And the breath from southern vallies Tell of all things bright and fair; When the snowy clouds are floating In the summer's summy sheen,

And the pure, uncurtained sunlight Adds a glory to the scene-Then I wander, seeming lonely, 'Mid the beautiful and fair; But my soul is with thee, Mary, And I feel thy spirit there.

When the gentle hour of evening Wears her robe of blue and gold, And castles, plains, and vallies Are in airy clouds enroll'd; When the night-bird shows her plumage, And the roses meet the dew: When the moon-beam greets the sunset. In its sple..did world of blue;

When the sunset and the moonlight Are commingled into one. Like to molten gold and crimson, When the gorgeous day is done-

Then I think 'tis heaven's portals That are gleaming in the west, And my Mary seems to beckon To the regions of the blest. When the cold and fearful inldnight Wears her coronet of jet, And a jewel'd veil of darkness Round the form of earth bas met; Or the frowning clouds are tossing The disheveled hair of night. And the angry lightning llashes

With a fitful, fearful light:

When all is dark and stormy As the passions of the soul, . And the knell of dylug glories Echoes in the thunder's roll-Then I see an angel smiling, With a halo round her form, And I know that she is watching I brough the darkness and the storm.

A Klas In the Dark,

The moon was bright, the stars were light, Night florg on her pavillion; Save in the west, the sun did rest; And tinged it with vermillion.

'Twas summer time, each star sublime. Shone out with golden pinion; To cheer the spell, when day's farewell Gave night the dark dominion.

As home I sped, to go to bed. I met an angei, nearly; Cupid at last, had caught me fast, I swore I loved her dearly. Each pouting lip, the bees might sip, Mistaking them for roses; Her veil was down, though in the town The form the Fee discloses. l seized her hand, so well 'twas planned, A white kis glove did grapple; if mother Eve could thus deceive, 'Twere luck to eat the apple.

She used Townsend's and others without receiving the slightestbenefit. He had one daughter to die from the same cause.

WAS hanued by a geattenian, a few days past, a certificate of cure of his daughter's eyes, of ten years standing, of the most distressing character. This case is at hind, and can be seen by any who feel interested, and is hoped—having happened in a tamily whose connection and wealth place them at the head of the first clicle of society—there can now no longer fest a doubt of the certainty of cure, as I state below, and all will see at once that hundreds have been designedly misled and kep, in ignorance and bluddless to nide from the EYES! EYES!

URES in this city, together with certificates of first families, standing and fortune in Keatucky, of care in their families, warrant the assertion, where igst and vision remains, the eye not having oeen operated on that with the use of my invention of medicines, standing and invention of medicines, standing agains restored, perfect to age in all the offerent affections of the eye, ever before pronounced nopeles and beyond the power of medicine or skill. Hence we aver we have uo equalin medicines, for the fact that no record of instory or medical writing can date pretent equality incures.

We invite investigation-come vitness for vourselves seeing is believing. No humbugins eeing. The knife, vit riol, or caustic were never intended for the eye, not can it ever remove disease therefrom. Let disease strike the system where it may, it immediately locate in the stomach, and is noorished and growstnere, and if ever removed, is done by operating with a proper medicine, and ilrough the stomach, and through that alone it learn by the immediate, healthy and preasant operation of my medicine on the stomach, that every branch of his is put in molion there, and from there through their proper channel find, their way to every neive throughout the entire system, and as life again returns to the nerve of the eye, all and every disease, called or known by whan ame you please, leaves as snow nearer tae sun, till the entire system, and as life again returns to the skill of the ninera practice, all hough administered by the missing the comes as perfect as ge persuits. Tisoften asked, how can a medicine so simple initial nature perform such wonderful curest. We answer this Tincture is composed entirely of vegetables from nature's garden, which give strength and tone to the stonach—creating a healthy appetite, which the patie is at liberty to indulge, then it is life finds its way to every member throughout the entire system. The liver them, whose functions are vital and of every importate to the system, commences its healthy operations, which are: first, to clean itself; next, it opens the pures, throw off all impurity of blood and food, clears off that glood and wretched leeling which ever attends a morbid iver takes place—every nerve receiving its wonted he; the whole system is invigorated, remiering me truly desirable and confortable.

1. BSSRS. B. A, PAHNSSTOCK & CO.—Gerts:

1. One of our boys, about twelve yearsold, was taken in with lever, and for about a week we suspected chils to be the disease. A neighbor, hywever, whose on in had been saved by a visi of your Verri age, and who always gives that medicine for symptoms of chi. s, ad vised us to try it in this case, which we did immediately.
The haif of a vial expelled a great quantity of worris, some of them as thick as the ittle finger, after which the boy got perfectly well. I think in more than had the cases of sischness of children, the use of the Verrich will be all that is needed. It has saved many lives in his part of the country, and we think we could not de without it. In my son's family, where there are severa children, your Vermifuge is almost the only remeal, hey ever have occasion to use for the various aiment that little ones are subject to. There is no remedy in the enemally known or more highly esteemed in we's lenessee than your Vermifuge, and it gives me pleasure to offer this testimony to its excellent.

Yours truly.
